

Orthopaedic Surgery

Fracture repair is often carried out in house, including bone plating and intramedullary pinning. Some complex fractures and congenital growth disorders may require expert orthopaedic help.

We currently use the services of two nearby referral centres that can provide the latest in treatment, including arthroscopy, MRI and very complex spinal and joint surgeries.